MCCA RECAP

(Maniowoc City Center Association)

You may have noticed our opening article in the business section on April 8th. This editorial follows that piece and is the official start of our MCCA news column. Consider this a sort of informational piece if you will. Our intent is to inform the public of our discussions so that you may feel more in tune with our community and perhaps interested in participating yourself. These columns will be featured twice monthly. The first one will be considered a “Recap” and the second a “Prelude”. Both will be focused primarily on our monthly meeting. However, they will also include a “Community Chat” (public commentary/ideas we receive), “Events” and “New Member” sections. So let’s begin...

Meeting RECAP

Community CHAT

A few phone calls were received in response to our very first article. One call led to a meeting in a very optimistic and enthusiastic woman who is interested in joining MCCA and had some fabulous ideas for our lovely city. She was especially passionate about involving our children with events. Thank you everyone for your response and interest!
